

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING GROUP (ITG®) COURSE OVERVIEW

THE DETAIL LEADER'S COURSE

WHY SHOULD I CONSIDER ATTENDING THIS TRAINING?

This state of the art training course was created specifically for those who are already security professionals in the protective services industry. Graduates of this course will return to their duties or go about new job searches with great confidence in their ability to: 1) manage finances, assets, and equipment, 2) recognize potential pitfalls, 3) develop sound contingency plans, 4) supply accurate reporting, and 5) provide decisive & skillful leadership.

WHO ARE MY FELLOW STUDENTS?

Dynamic security professionals all over the world are eager to take their management skill sets to a new level, whether they are currently in positions of authority or striving to get there. Some of these individuals are already Detail Leaders (DL) of corporate or private Executive Protection (EP) teams, others are leading government or contracted Dignitary Protection (DP) efforts, while still others are serving as Project Managers (PM) for multi-faceted security efforts in High Risk Environments (HRE). Perhaps most exciting, students will also come from the ranks of these various types of Details, investing in their own professional development in preparation for assuming such leadership posts.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

This training curriculum is focused on the specific abilities needed by today's Detail Leader and includes:

- Establishing EP Operations
- Creating Standard Operating Procedures, Incident Response and Evacuation Plans
- Personnel Management
- Finance and Accounting
- Property Management
- Leadership principles, traits and styles
- Utilization and manipulation of Microsoft® software programs Word®, Excel®, PowerPoint®, and Visio®

HOW WILL I BE TAUGHT?

The International Training Group™ treats everyone with Courtesy, Dignity, and Respect. These values are the hallmark of all interaction between our training staff and students. ITG®'s philosophy is that we never teach from a perspective of fear or intimidation. Our methods of instruction emphasize explanation, demonstration, imitation, and plenty of practice so students gain a level of comfort and confidence with each skill taught.

WHO ARE THE INSTRUCTORS?

The instructors of The International Training Group™ have lived, worked, and traveled in more than 80 countries on six continents. Their expertise has been gained by leading details, managing projects, protecting clients, and teaching students across corporate America, numerous governments, and in HRE such as Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, Haiti, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Somalia, Colombia, El Salvador, Mexico, and more.

WHAT IS THE INTERNATIONAL TRAINING GROUP™?

ITG® is unique in the security industry and our areas of expertise include creating dynamic, customized, and mobile training courses that meet the exacting needs of today's security professionals and their organizations. The leaders of our company have more than 100 years collective experience in protecting, consulting, and training some of the world's most recognizable people, their families, and the professionals who protect them.
